MODEL 129, 140 as of 1.6.96, 163, 170

The instrument cluster has two control buttons which are on the left or right next to the speedometer.

The right control button is used to adjust the time (refer to Owner's Manual).

The left control button is used

D to regulate the instrument illumination
D to activate the display illumination
D to reset the trip odometer display
D to operate the maintenance display (model 170 only bis 05.97)
D to operate the Active Service System ASSYST (as of 06.97)

----

n	Purpose/function of terminal 58d, instrument display illumination	Engines 112, 113, 611 (engines with oil sensor)	GF54.30-P-3008A
n	Electronic clock		GF54.30-P-3011A
n	Active Service System (ASSYST)		GF00.20-P-0003-01A
	Operating instructions, resetting	Model 210 as of 01.03.97 with engines M111, OM 602, OM 604, OM 605 and OM 606 As of 06/97 models 129, 140, 170, 202 except engines 112, 113, 611 (valid for engines with oil level switch)	GF00.20-P-0003-01B